General Information

The American Association of Code Enforcement

Incorporated as a nonprofit organization in 1988, the American Association of Code Enforcement (AACE) began with representatives from California, Colorado, Louisiana, New Mexico, and Texas. The Association currently serves members and associates throughout the states with new chapters being formed every year. The only association of housing, property maintenance, and zoning officials in the United States, its members are employed by a city, town, parish, county, or state government for the enforcement of housing, property maintenance, or zoning ordinances intended to provide minimum standards for the protection of the public's health, safety, and welfare.

The Association was established for studying and advancing the science and practice of code enforcement through education, training, certification, and the exchange of ideas, information, and technology. Membership consists of dedicated professionals sharing the common interest of enhancing the safety of their communities through knowledge and application of recognized housing, property maintenance, zoning, and construction codes and standards.

The International Code Council

The International Code Council (ICC) was established in 1994 as a non-profit organization dedicated to developing a single set of comprehensive and coordinated national model construction codes.

The ICC is a member-focused association dedicated to helping the building safety community and construction industry provide safe, sustainable, and affordable construction through the development of codes and standards used in the design, build, and compliance process.

The AACE/ICC Voluntary Certification Program

The American Association of Code Enforcement Certification Program was established in 1993 to encourage professionalism among code enforcement personnel through a comprehensive test of knowledge of codes, standards, and practices necessary for professional competence. The examinations are now being used both for screening of prospective employees and for merit raises for current employees.

The purpose of the program, as expressed in the Voluntary Certification Rules and Procedures, is to provide:

1. A mechanism for individuals to demonstrate their knowledge of various property maintenance, housing, construction, and zoning codes, standards, and practices, and
2. A mechanism that jurisdictions can use to partially evaluate individuals for knowledge of various property maintenance, housing, construction, and zoning codes, standards, and practices.

The AACE/ICC certification examinations are not designed to rank individuals from a high to a low competence or to determine the best qualified person for a job opening, and they are not designed as intelligence examinations to measure a person's intuitive knowledge and abilities. The examinations are instead designed to determine if an individual's knowledge of codes and legal aspects of codes administration meets or exceeds a prescribed level of competence. Passing a certification examination provides evidence that an individual possesses critical knowledge of relevant information necessary for competent practice of the profession.

The AACE/ICC examinations are continually edited and updated to reflect current codes and standards of practice. The key element in the examination validation process is the review of the examination questions by committees of practicing code enforcement personnel who are experts in each examination category.

AACE and the ICC signed an agreement in July 2011 that combined the AACE and ICC versions of the Property Maintenance and Zoning exams into a single exam for each category. Beginning in January 2012, both AACE and ICC candidates will take exams under the same titles.

Voluntary Certification Program Rules and Procedures

The AACE/ICC Voluntary Certification Program is governed by rules and standards which establish procedures for the application process and fees, examination process and scheduling, and appeal of examinations. A copy of the Voluntary Certification Program Rules and Procedures is available on request from AACE.

Examination Prerequisites

The examination is designed to measure practical knowledge required for competent professional practice. Most successful candidates have significant code enforcement experience. There are no specific education or experience prerequisites to registering for the examinations; however, candidates without related education or experience should not expect to be successful on the examinations.

Recognition of AACE/ICC Certification

The AACE/ICC Certification Program is based on voluntary participation. It is a highly esteemed professional credential. However, it carries no guarantee that these certificates will be accepted or recognized by a governmental jurisdiction or for any employment purposes. Contact your local jurisdiction for information on local requirements.

The ICC confers all certificates to both ICC and AACE candidates. Once individuals are certified, they may use their certification on business cards, advertisements, etc. Such notice should, however, include both the certification name and number in the following format: "Property Maintenance and Housing Inspector No.12345."

AACE and ICC protect the confidentiality of certification records and restrict access to these records solely to the candidate. Whether or not any individual is certified is a matter of public record once the candidate has been notified.

Change of Address

It is important that written notification of any change of an address is received by AACE and ICC from the candidate so that the most current information will be included in the roster of certified individuals. In addition, a current address on file is necessary to ensure that renewal information is accurately delivered. Send address changes to AACE/ICC Certification Services, 900 Montclair Road, Birmingham, AL 35213, or by fax at (205) 599-9897.

Examination Services

All examination and certification related services are provided for AACE by the ICC. These services include exam registration, exam administration, printing of certificates and wallet cards, etc. A separate company, Pearson VUE, provides computer-based testing (CBT) exam administration services for the AACE/ICC exams.

Examination Administration

Two different methods are used to administer the AACE/ICC certification examinations. You have the option of using the traditional paper/pencil method or the computer-based testing (CBT) method. The examination questions and content are the same regardless of the method by which you choose to take your examination.

The time required for taking the exams is the same for both methods. However, the registration procedures, policies for retaking an exam, and time required for scoring are different for each method of examination administration. Please review carefully the information in this Bulletin on the method of examination administration you choose.

The benefits of the CBT method are the short registration time required before the examination, frequent administration dates, and the immediate scoring upon completion of the examination. Fees for CBT exams are the same as those for paper/pencil exams. Pearson VUE, the CBT exam administration agency, issues an official score report letter immediately upon completion of the examination at the test center. Paper/pencil score reporting can take up to six weeks. The certificate and wallet card are mailed by the Code Council to successful AACE candidates before the end of the month following the examination.

Steps to Achieving AACE/ICC Certification

Read and understand the bulletin, which contains all of the information you'll need throughout the pre- and post-exam process

Determine which exam you want to take, and through which method (paper-and-pencil or computer-based testing)

Follow the registration requirements beginning on page 23 for the method by which you choose to test

Obtain the approved references for the exam, and study these references well in advance of the exam

Pass the exam. You will receive a wall certificate and wallet card 4-6 weeks after the end of the month in which you passed the exam. Code Enforcement Office and Code Enforcement Administrator require the completion of multiple exams; after passing the required exams, an application and fee must be submitted for the certificate.

AACE certification may have additional requirements that include, but are not limited to, passing multiple examinations and submitting additional documentation when required. Please be sure to thoroughly read the detailed information on those examinations you elect to take. For the most up-to-date requirements and detailed information on AACE certification examinations, go to www.aace1.com.

AACE/ICC Certification Categories

The following categories of certificate are available from AACE/ICC:

Property Maintenance and Housing Inspector (Exam ID 64)

Zoning Inspector (Exam ID 75)

AACE Code Enforcement Officer

1. Successfully complete the Property Maintenance and Housing Inspector exam (ID 64), or possess a current AACE Property Maintenance and Housing Inspector (ID 61) certification.
2. Successfully complete the Zoning Inspector exam (ID 75), or possess a current AACE Zoning Enforcement Officer (ID 72) certification.
3. Complete the application found in the back of this bulletin. Submit the application and fee to AACE.
4. To maintain this certification, both the Property Maintenance and Housing Inspector and the Zoning Inspector examination categories must be renewed every three years (see the back of this bulletin for renewal information).
5. Certified Code Enforcement Officers may use the initials “CCEO” on business cards following their name.

AACE Code Enforcement Administrator

1. Successfully complete either the Property Maintenance and Housing Inspector exam (ID 64) or the Zoning Inspector exam (ID 75).
2. Successfully complete the ICC (ID 01) Legal/Management exam.
 - A. Obtain information about this exam on the certification website at www.iccsafe.org/inspector, or see page 29 of this bulletin.
 - B. Register for and pass the Legal/Management exam.
3. Complete the application found in the back of this bulletin. Submit the application and fee to AACE.
4. To maintain this certification, both certification categories must be renewed every three years. Information on renewals can be found in the back of this bulletin and at www.iccsafe.org/renewal.
5. Certified Code Enforcement Administrators may use the initials “CCEA” on business cards following their name.

Administrative Rules and Procedures

How often can I take an exam?

During any three (3) year period and for any one certification category, you may take the exam a total of six (6) times, if necessary, to pass the exam. In any six (6) month period, you may take an exam up to two (2) times, if necessary, to pass. You will be responsible for payment of the exam fee for every exam you take.

Taking the examination in one category has no effect on testing for the six-month period for another category. For example, if you take the Zoning Inspector examination and fail it, you would be allowed to take the Property Maintenance & Housing Inspector examination without regard to the six-month period for your Zoning Inspector examination.

How is my exam scored?

What is a passing score? A passing score is the score set by the ICC and/or with the Exam Development Committee (EDC) as the minimum score needed to pass the exam. This score is technically called a scale score and is often set at 70 or 75.

How is a passing score set? A passing score is set as part of the process at the Exam Development Committee. This part of the process involves setting item-level cut-scores, using the expert judgment of the Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) who are at the EDC. These experts determine what the minimum is that the candidate needs to know in order to obtain the certificate, and a passing score.

What is a scale score? A scaled score transforms a raw test score (the number of test questions answered correctly) into other measurement units, called a scale score. However, please know that a scale score is not the number of questions answered correctly, nor the percentage of questions answered correctly.

Is the current test more or less difficult than prior tests, or future tests? There are multiple forms of the ICC examinations. While these forms were developed from the same set of content specifications, the levels of difficulty of the forms will vary because different exam questions appear on different forms. Some of these questions by their nature (and designated in the cut-score) are more difficult than others, even though they pertain to the same section of the exam. It would be unfair to require a candidate taking a collection (form) of somewhat more difficult questions to answer as many questions correctly as a candidate who took an easier form. So, we use a statistical procedure known as scaling to correct for differences in test form difficulty.

Think of it this way. Let's say an elementary school hired the ICC to create an exam to test for knowledge of aspects of mathematics. Further, let's say the exam was called "Addition and Subtraction," and the Exam Information Bulletin states it is a 100-item exam.

Look at the first ten questions of two different exam forms, both of which measure the concept of "Addition and Subtraction":

Question	Exam Form 1	Question	Exam Form 2
1.	$2 + 4 =$	1.	$6 + 9 =$
2.	$6 + 4 =$	2.	$16 + 26 =$
3.	$7 - 3 =$	3.	$18 - 16 =$
4.	$18 + 15 =$	4.	$23 + 99 =$
5.	$16 - 4 =$	5.	$86 - 44 =$
6.	$8 + 8 =$	6.	$5 + 1 =$
7.	$4 + 9 =$	7.	$29 + 88 =$
8.	$20 - 17 =$	8.	$74 - 67 =$
9.	$4 + 15 =$	9.	$48 + 96 =$
10.	$7 - 4 =$	10.	$55 + 38 =$

As you can see, the questions on Form 2 are a bit harder than the questions on Form 1. If these were both 100-item exam forms with such a continuing mix of items, it would be unfair to require the students who were administered Exam Form 2 to answer the same number of questions correctly in order to pass.

Why scale the scores? If we simply reported the total number of questions answered correctly (the raw score), there would be a different passing score for each form of the test (because of those differences in difficulty). This would be confusing to candidates. So, we convert these raw scores to a constant scale such that, say, the designated 70 or 75 continues as the minimum score required to pass regardless of the form administered, knowing the number of correct answers needed to pass varies from form to form and from year to year.

What is reported? Scaled scores of (typically) 70 or 75 or above are reported as PASS. The ICC does not report the numeric score; the score report simply indicates a passing score by saying PASS. Those who fail the exam are provided the numeric scaled score.

How might exam scores be cancelled?

On rare occasions, circumstances may render examination scores invalid. ICC reserves the right to cancel or withhold any examination scores if, in its sole opinion, there is adequate reason to question their validity. Reasons are:

1. Doubts may be raised about the validity of examinees' scores because of suspected misconduct, including but not limited to, giving or receiving help; using unauthorized notes, books, or papers; removing examination materials or notes from the examination room; attempting to take an examination for someone else; or inappropriately taking more than two CBT examinations within a single six-month period. In such circumstances, examinees will be expected to cooperate in an investigation of their scores. Such examinees will be notified of procedures developed by ICC to ensure fairness.
2. Some scores may be rendered invalid because of circumstances beyond the examinee's control, such as faulty examination materials or mistiming. These situations will be investigated; when such occurrences result in cancellation of an examinee's scores, ICC will arrange for a makeup examination for the examinees concerned.

3. ICC has implemented procedures to minimize the potential of negative conditions at the examination site such as bad lighting, excessive noise, or uncomfortable temperature conditions. In unlikely cases where such conditions may occur, the required passing score is not modified or changed. If a candidate finds unfavorable conditions at the examination site, we recommend the candidate immediately notify the proctor.

Does AACE require a candidate to have a certain level of experience or education before taking an examination?

No. Most AACE/ICC examinations are open to all individuals with no prerequisite for experience or education. AACE/ICC certification should be used as one of several measures of an individual's qualifications when screening applicants for a position. Inspectors should possess the right mix of technical knowledge, education, and related experience. Because proper weighting of the relative importance of these three qualifications is a subjective decision, determining the emphasis of AACE/ICC certification is most appropriately performed at the local level by the building official. For this reason, AACE does not specify education or experience requirements for certification applicants.

What is the best way to prepare for an examination?

The best way to prepare for an examination is through the study of codes and standards. Online seminars, self-study workbooks, code commentaries, and textbooks may be helpful. Practice examinations for many categories are available for a fee from the Code Council at www.icccampus.org. These may be useful to those candidates who need to refresh their skills in taking exams. It is important to realize, though, that the difficulty level of the practice exams may not represent that of the actual Certification exam.

How often can I test?

There is no mandatory waiting period before retaking a failed exam. However, it is strongly recommended that you allow time to study the approved references before registering to test a second time.

When will I receive my results?

Electronic exams:

Results for examinations taken electronically are available immediately after completion of the examination.

Candidates will automatically receive an AACE/ICC wall certificate and wallet card within seven to nine weeks after they pass the examination. Some categories have additional requirements prior to receiving the full certification.

Paper-and-pencil exams:

Results for examinations taken by paper-and-pencil are mailed within three to four weeks of the exam date.

I didn't receive my pass letter or wallet card. Can I have another mailed to me?

Yes, but the item must be requested within 90 days from the date of the passed examination to have another mailed without a fee. If a resend of a pass letter or wallet card is requested after 90 days from the exam, a fee will be charged. For fees and other optional services, go to www.iccsafe.org/inspector.

What type of question format will be included in the examination?

Test questions are in four-option, multiple-choice format, with one answer on each question scored as correct. Due to the rigorous psychometric processes used in exam development, questions do not follow patterns (e.g., "the most common answer is 'B'").

Should I guess if I don't know the answer to a question?

There is no guessing penalty, so it is to your advantage to answer every question. Remember to base your answers on the listed references for each exam, not solely on long-time field practices.

When are exams updated to the newest codes?

Examinations are updated to the latest edition of the International Codes[®] effective January 1 of the year following the date of publication to allow time for candidates to become familiar with the new code provisions.

Who can see my candidate records?

All certification examination candidates have certain rights in relation to their educational records. To view the complete ICC Certification Records Policy, visit the ICC website at www.iccsafe.org/inspector.

Feedback and Appeals Process

ICC has developed a three-step process for test-takers to comment on or challenge the results of their exam. These are:

- 1) ICC Certification & Testing staff review,
- 2) appeal to Exam Development Committee, and
- 3) appeal to the Board for International Professional Standards.

The form for providing feedback and starting the appeals process is available at the conclusion of your exam at Pearson VUE (if testing via computer) or on the ICC website at www.iccsafe.org/inspector.

If you re-take a failed exam on which you have submitted an appeal, you will forfeit your appeal opportunity for that exam.

Step 1: ICC Certification & Testing Staff Review

Why: To have ICC Certification & Testing staff review comments or challenges on specific exams or exam items

How: You must submit a Comment / Challenge form to ICC with your original signature (form available at www.iccsafe.org/inspector or upon request after your exam at a Pearson VUE test site); this form must contain a separate and complete statement of each item upon which your comments are based, and must be mailed to the following address:

International Code Council
Candidate Services Coordinator
900 Montclair Road
Birmingham, AL 35213

Fee: None ($0)

Deadline: You must submit the above form to ICC within 90 days following your exam date

Response: You will be mailed a response from ICC staff within 15 business days from receipt of the form by ICC; a request for staff review is based solely upon the most recent examination taken

Step 1 must be completed prior to Step 2.

Step 2: Appeal to Exam Development Committee (EDC)

- Why: To appeal the results of the ICC Certification & Testing staff review to the EDC; you can read more about the EDC and their function at www.iccsafe.org/Membership/Pages/ExamDevelopmentCommittees.aspx
- How: You must submit your request in writing to ICC, at the following address:

International Code Council
Candidate Services Coordinator
900 Montclair Road
Birmingham, AL 35213
- Fee: None ($0)
- Deadline: You must submit your written request within 30 days of the date of the ICC staff denial letter
- Response: A response will be provided to you in writing after the next available EDC meeting, which can take as long as 120 days; an appeal to EDC is based solely upon the most recent examination taken

Step 2 must be completed prior to Step 3.

Step 3: Appeal to the Board for International Professional Standards (BIPS)

BIPS serves as the oversight advisory board to the exam development committees; you can read more about BIPS and their function at www.iccsafe.org/accreditation/BIPS

- Why: To provide you a final level of appeal
- How: You must submit your request in writing to ICC, at the following address:

International Code Council
Candidate Services Coordinator
900 Montclair Road
Birmingham, AL 35213

The hearing will be held from 60 days to 6 months from your request, dependent on availability of BIPS members; you will receive a minimum 30 days written notice as to date, time, and place of hearing, and you can participate in person, at your expense, or at no charge via teleconference; you will have an opportunity to present documentary or oral evidence, or to provide witnesses in support of the appeal, by participating in the BIPS hearing
- Fee: None ($0)
- Deadline: You must submit your written request within 30 days of the EDC challenge denial letter date
- Response: You will be mailed results of the hearing within 15 days of the date of the hearing

Important: BIPS is the final level of appeals

Optional Services

Optional: Hand Score

Why:	To verify the accuracy of the candidate's reported score; please be aware that ICC and Pearson VUE follow very careful scoring procedures to ensure accuracy prior to issuance of score reports
How:	You must complete the Hand Score Request form (at www.iccsafe.org/inspector) and submit this form with original signature and copy of your score report to ICC
Fee:	$25.00
Deadline:	You must request a hand score within 90 days from your exam
Response:	You will be mailed the results of the hand score within 15 days from receipt of your request
Impact:	Please know that it is very rare that a score will be changed based on a hand score, as the automated scoring systems are very accurate; a request for hand score is based solely upon the most recent examination taken

Optional: Review Session **

Why:	To review missed test questions; you must be within ten (10) points of passing score. This is not an opportunity to change answers, ask questions, or see the correct answers, but only to review those items scored as incorrect, along with the answers you marked, for use in completing a formal challenge if you wish. A review session is based solely upon the most recent examination taken.
How:	You must submit the request form available at www.iccsafe.org/inspector , along with fee
Fee:	$75.00—NOTE: you do not need to complete a review session to challenge your exam
When:	You must schedule your review session within 90 days from your exam
Response:	You will not receive a response based solely on the review session; instead, you will be provided a response to any items on which you complete a challenge form during your review session

* Review Sessions

Reviews are completed at a paper-and-pencil testing location via paper-and-pencil. Due to the limited number of paper-and-pencil test sites around the country, it may take several months to secure a site for your review session. Review sessions are generally scheduled for the four annual National Certification examination dates and sites. The available testing sites and dates are located on the paper-pencil exam application found at www.iccsafe.org/inspector.

Review sessions are limited to one half of the original examination time. For a two-part examination, reviews are limited to one half of the original time for the portion of the examination which was failed. Candidates may bring in any of the texts listed in the Examination Information Bulletin as required references for the examination.

Candidates must submit this form with applicable fee and a copy of the score report received. An original signature on this form is required.

Submit completed forms, fees, etc. to:

International Code Council
ATTN: Candidate Services Coordinator
900 Montclair Road
Birmingham, AL 35213

Test Site Regulations

To ensure the security of examination materials, reliable test results, and public confidence in the integrity of certified professionals, the rules and procedures below are strictly enforced at all Code Council examinations.

What should I bring to the test site?

For electronic examinations, examinees must provide their testing confirmation number (that was provided by the Pearson VUE representative at the time of exam registration) at the testing site on the exam day in order to be admitted to take the exam.

For paper-and-pencil or electronic examinations, examinees must possess and present a valid (unexpired) photo ID with signature, issued by a state or federal regulatory agency, e.g., a driver's license, passport, etc.

For electronic examinations, the name on the exam reservation must match the name on the ID provided. If it does not, you will not be allowed to test, and will forfeit your exam fee. Neither ICC nor Pearson VUE can make an exception to this policy. If you are unable to present identification as required by the ICC and Pearson VUE, or have questions about what will be allowed, you must call Pearson VUE prior to your scheduled exam to make other arrangements.

Examinees may bring the following items to the examination:

1. Three No. 2 pencils (sharpened) [PAPER-AND-PENCIL TESTING ONLY]
2. Reference(s) as listed in this Examination Information Bulletin for the applicable exam—no other reference material will be allowed into the testing center:
 - Bound (original bound book, three-ring binder, or stapled)
 - Notes written in ink or highlighted in the code sections
 - Permanently attached tabs (tabs that can't be removed without destroying the page)
 - Pencil notes in your references that are highlighted prior to arrival at the test center
 - Photocopies of copyrighted materials are not allowed
3. Eraser [PAPER-AND-PENCIL TESTING ONLY]
4. Magnifying glass
5. Eyeglasses, if necessary
6. Architects' scale or rule
7. Watch without alarm/camera [PAPER-AND-PENCIL TESTING ONLY]
8. Battery-operated calculator:
 - Nonprogrammable
 - Not capable of storing examination information
 - No ribbon or paper printing capabilities
9. Foreign language/English translation dictionaries, if needed

What should I leave home?

1. Any kind of ink (ballpoint, felt-tip, gel, etc.) pens, colored pencils, highlighters, writing paper, or briefcases
2. Personal items such as purses, wallets, or watches—lockers are available at Pearson VUE for small items, but will not accommodate laptops, briefcases, or large purses or bags
3. Calculators with print capability and/or that store formulas

4. Copying, recording, or photo devices
5. Cell phones, beepers, radios, MP3 players, and/or PDAs

What are proctors, and what do they do?

The proctors are responsible for administering the examination and ensuring security of the exam materials at the test site. Proctors are well-trained and will treat candidates with respect, and in turn, will expect the same level of respect from candidates. Threatening a proctor or interfering with the administration of an examination at any time may be considered a criminal offense and punishable by law. Proctors cannot discuss contents of the exam or reference materials with a candidate.

Proctors have the right to remove a candidate's test and require the individual to leave the building if the candidate:

1. Gives or receives help during the examination;
2. Attempts to remove exam materials or notes from the room;
3. Creates a disturbance;
4. Copies or attempts to copy examination questions or answers; or
5. Is found to have prohibited materials (cell phone, recorder, etc.) during the exam.

If a candidate is dismissed from an examination for an infraction of the policies presented in this booklet, the candidate will not be entitled to a refund, may jeopardize his or her right to take a Code Council examination in the future, and may face possible prosecution.

What does ICC expect of me?

Examinees are responsible for arriving at the exam site on the proper date, at the proper time, and with proper identification. You should determine in advance the exact location of the test site, how to get there, and how much time it will take you to get to the site. Examinations will be given only on the date and time scheduled.

Examinees are responsible for arriving at the test site with required reference(s), if desired, for use during the exam. Required examination references are listed with the individual examination outlines found in this bulletin. References for examinations are not supplied by the Code Council or the testing center.

Examinees must know, understand, and adhere to all of the regulations governing Code Council examinations as listed in this bulletin.

Examinees should arrive at the exam site at least 30 minutes before the examination is scheduled to begin. Remember, it is your responsibility to already be familiar with the regulations governing Code Council examinations.

What can I expect at the test site?

The Code Council proctor will check your identification, have you sign in, and may assign you a seat. The examination proctor will explain the procedures for taking the examination; answer questions related to taking the exam and provide notification to begin the examination.

Before the Exam

Metal detectors may be randomly used to search examinees entering and/or leaving the exam room. You will be asked to empty all of your pockets and place personal items in a locker. Proctors may inspect all materials an examinee carries into and from the exam room. If your reference materials do not meet test site regulations (relating to tabs, pencil notes, etc.), you will not be allowed to take these references into the exam room. You will still be allowed to test, but without these materials.

The Code Council randomly videotapes examination sessions.

You are not allowed to write or mark in or on your reference books during the examination.

While the examination is being administered, you are not allowed to leave the building and return to the exam room. If you wish to leave the exam room for any reason, you must receive permission from the proctor and turn in all of your examination materials and references to the proctor. Only one examinee at a time is allowed outside the exam room, and you are not allowed additional test time for time spent outside the exam room.

During the Exam

You are not allowed to communicate, verbally or nonverbally, with other candidates during the examination, and you may not share references.

It is highly recommended that if you are taking a computer-based exam, especially for the first time, you complete the tutorial available to you at the beginning of your exam. The time spent on the tutorial does not count against your exam time. You will receive important information about how to keep track of your time remaining, how to mark items for review, where to find the number of the question you are on, and more.

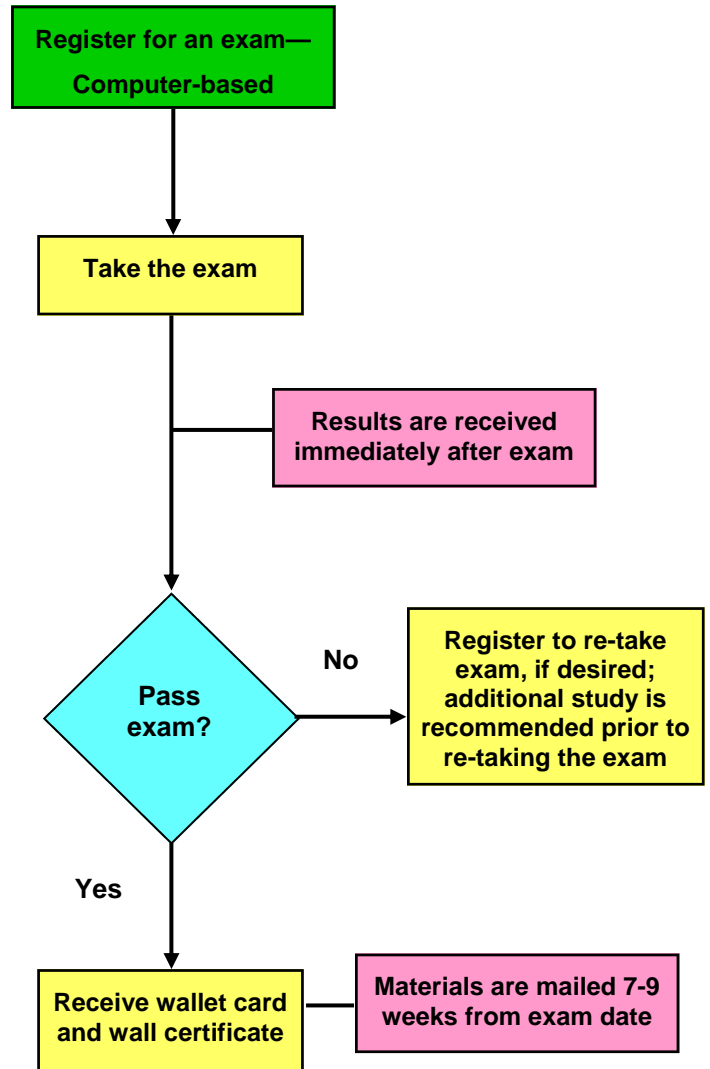

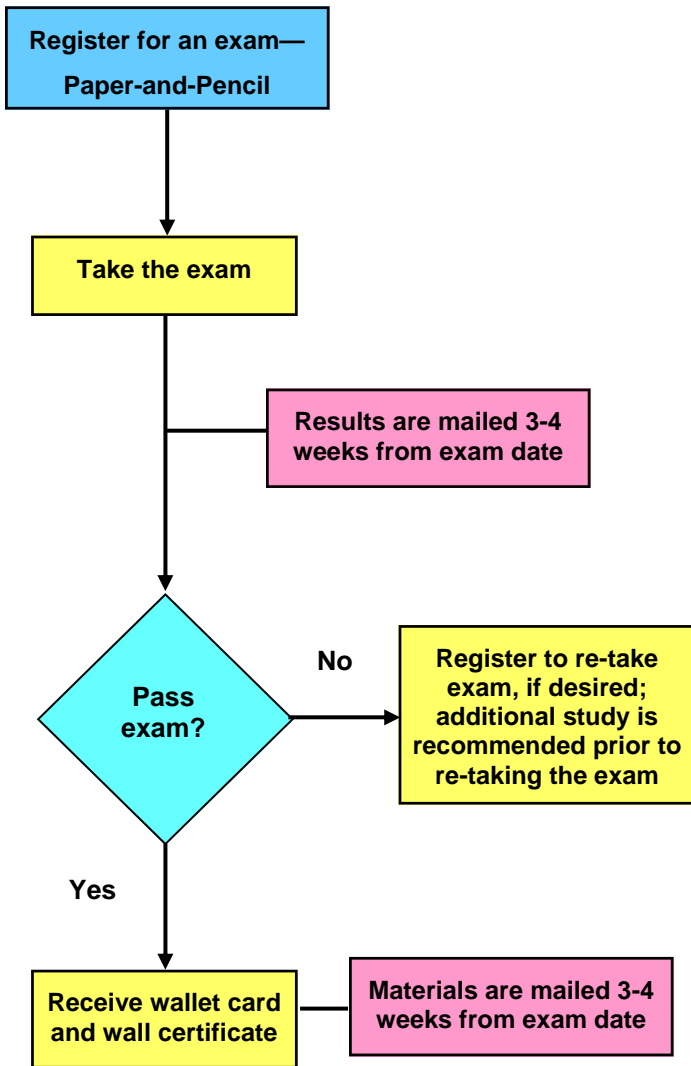

For electronically administered examinations, there is an optional clock on the computer that counts down to display the time remaining. (Information on turning on the clock is available in the tutorial prior to the exam.) When the time limit is up for the examination, the computer will end the test.

After the Exam

If you pass your examination, you cannot retake the examination you passed. If you do not pass your examination and wish to comment on your experience, please see the section of this bulletin titled "Feedback and Appeals Process."

Certification Examination Timeline

The timeline below will give you a general idea of how long it will take to achieve certification. Please remember that your experience may be shorter or longer than that below, dependent on individual circumstances.

Computer-based Testing

How do I register for a computer-based exam?

Computer-based certification examinations are administered for the Code Council by Pearson VUE (formerly Promissor), a professional test administration company. To register to take a Code Council computer-based certification exam, call Pearson VUE at 1-800-275-8301, or visit Pearson VUE's website at www.pearsonvue.com/icc. You must provide the EXAM ID and EXAM TITLE, whether registering online or by telephone.

Online reservations are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Code Council encourages candidates to register online, for your convenience. You must provide an e-mail address to schedule an exam online, and Pearson VUE will e-mail you a confirmation letter containing the date and time of your exam, along with test day instructions. It is your responsibility to check this confirmation letter to ensure the exam listed is the one you wish to take.

Pearson VUE's customer care reservations and customer service lines are open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. (Eastern Time), Saturday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. When you call to make your examination reservation, a representative will help you select the optimal test date and location for your schedule, provide instructions and directions, and give your examination reporting time. Walk-in testing is not available.

You may make an exam reservation up to one business day prior to your desired exam date, depending on space availability at the test center.

You must have the following information available at the time you are registering for a Code Council computer-based certification examination:

1. Exam ID and title. Exam IDs and titles can be found in this bulletin
2. Your full name, address, and home and work telephone numbers
3. Selected examination date and location of the area you desire to take the exam
4. Your score report, if you are retaking the examination (only for those candidates who originally tested through Pearson VUE)
5. Your credit card or payment information

Where are the test sites?

To locate test sites in your area, visit the Pearson VUE website at www.pearsonvue.com/icc for an updated listing of sites. Be aware that test sites are subject to change.

How do I pay for my exam?

Examination fees must be paid by credit card, debit card (issued through VISA or MasterCard) or electronic check at the time a reservation is made, NOT at the test center. Candidates who do not have or do not wish to use a credit card, debit card, or personal checking account may choose to prepay their examination fees using a voucher. Vouchers can be purchased online at www.pearsonvue.com/vouchers/pricelist/icccert.asp by credit card, either singly or in volume. To redeem a voucher as payment when scheduling a test, simply indicate “voucher” as the payment method and provide the voucher number. All vouchers are pre-paid, non-refundable, and non-returnable. Vouchers expire twelve (12) months from the date they are issued, and voucher expiration dates cannot be extended. The exam must be taken by the expiration date printed on the voucher.

Do I have to be a computer whiz?

Examinations are administered on a personal computer (PC). Candidates are not required to have any computer knowledge to take the examination on the PC. Before you begin your test, you may take up to 15 minutes to practice with the sample questions. Timing of the examination does not begin until you look at the first question of the actual examination. You will be allowed to change your answers, mark answers for review, go back to skipped questions and, time permitting, review your test.

When are exams available?

Code Council certification examinations are administered nationally, Tuesday through Saturday (exceptions noted below). Testing sessions are generally held at 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Some test centers are open daily, while others are open on specific days of the week. In some locations, exams are administered on a monthly basis. Pearson VUE offices are closed in observance of the following holidays in 2012:

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Day
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving (including Friday following holiday)
- Christmas Eve and Christmas Day

What if the weather's bad?

Test administrations will be delayed or canceled only in emergencies. If severe weather or a natural disaster makes the test center inaccessible or unsafe, the test administration may be canceled. Call Pearson VUE at 1-800-274-2615 to check weather or other emergency delays.

How do I cancel or reschedule my test?

To change or cancel your reservation without monetary penalty, you must notify Pearson VUE two business days before your scheduled examination. When this is done, the fee from your first appointment will be applied to your new test date. If you call Pearson VUE less than two business days before your scheduled examination, you will be charged the full examination fee. The fee from your first appointment will be owed in addition to the fee for the new test date.

What if I can't make it to my test?

There are no refunds for examinations not taken. All candidates seeking excused absences must submit written verification and supporting documentation of the situation to Pearson VUE within 14 days of the original examination date. Illness excuses must be written by the attending physician. Inclement weather is not acceptable as an excused absence. If, on the day you are scheduled to test, you are unable to attend the examination for which you were scheduled, you may be excused without monetary penalty for the following reasons:

1. Documented illness, either yourself or immediate family member;
2. Death in the immediate family;
3. Disabling traffic accident;
4. Court appearance or jury duty; or
5. Military duty.

Written verification and supporting documentation for excused absences must be submitted to the Pearson VUE Program Coordinator via fax or mail within fourteen (14) days of the original examination date.

Pearson VUE
c/o Candidate Services
P.O. Box 8588
Philadelphia, PA 19101
Fax: 888-204-6291

If you are absent from an examination that you were scheduled to attend, and you did not reschedule or cancel according to the policy, you will owe Pearson VUE the full examination fee for that missed examination.

When do I get my test results?

After completing the test, candidates will raise their hands and the assessment center manager will retrieve the unit for immediate scoring. Failing candidates will be provided with diagnostic information on their performance on major content areas of each examination taken. This information is not used to determine whether a candidate passes or fails; it is for self-evaluation only. Candidates who pass will be notified with the word "PASS." Refer to Examination Scoring on page 11.

What if I have special needs?

Pearson VUE certifies that it shall comply with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need special arrangements for testing, please call 1-800-466-0450 to request special testing services. This telephone number is available for reservations Monday through Friday, 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. CST. All examination sites have access for candidates with disabilities.

Pearson VUE will provide auxiliary aids and services, except where it may fundamentally alter the examination or results. It is recommended that you submit a written request for special test arrangements and services approximately two to three weeks in advance of your desired test date. In addition, candidates should indicate when registering for re-examination that special arrangements were made or services used for the prior test administration, and that these services will be needed again for the upcoming test date. Supporting documentation can be faxed to 610-617-9397.

Pearson VUE is equipped with TDD (Telecommunications Devices for the Deaf) to assist deaf and hearing-impaired candidates. TDD calling is available during standard business hours through a special Pearson VUE toll-free number, 1-800-274-2617. This phone number is for express use by candidates with compatible TDD equipment.

Pearson VUE will determine the time and place of specially arranged examinations and confirm these arrangements with the candidate directly. In some cases, there may be an additional fee for special arrangements.

In the event that an examination is offered only on Saturdays, candidates who cannot take the examination for religious reasons may request a non-Saturday test administration. Such a request must be put in writing on official stationery by your religious advisor and sent via fax machine, or mailed to Pearson VUE. Non-Saturday testing for this circumstance is done only on a prearranged basis.

Paper-and-Pencil Testing

How do I register for a paper-and-pencil exam?

A registration application is required to be completed and forwarded to the Code Council with pre-payment. The application can be found on our website at www.iccsafe.org/inspector. Alternately, candidates can register online at www.iccsafe.org/exams.

Approximately 2 weeks prior to the examination date, the Code Council will send a confirmation letter stating the examination(s) for which the candidate is registered, examination date, reporting time(s), and examination center address. It is your responsibility to check this confirmation letter to ensure the exam listed is the one you wish to take.

What if I need to cancel or transfer my exam?

A candidate will be refunded 80 percent of the written examination registration fee when cancellation is made at least 14 days prior to the scheduled examination date. If cancellation is made less than 14 days before the scheduled examination date, 50 percent of the registration fee is refunded.

Cancellations must be in writing (via fax or U.S. mail) with the candidate's signature. The exam date, type, and location must be listed on the cancellation request.

Candidates also have a one-time-only option to transfer their paid registration to the next scheduled examination administration date with a $50 administrative fee. Transfers must be requested in writing and received at the Code Council no later than the day prior to your scheduled exam date.

If a candidate does not appear on his or her scheduled examination date, no refund is made, and the option to transfer registration to the next scheduled examination administration will require written request within 7 days of the examination date. The following reasons will be accepted:

1. Documented illness, either yourself or immediate family member;
2. Death in the immediate family;
3. Disabling traffic accident;
4. Court appearance or jury duty; or
5. Military duty.

What if I have special needs?

If you have a disability that prohibits you from taking the examination under standard conditions, you may request special arrangements. Your request must accompany your registration form. In addition to the letter of request, a special accommodations form must be submitted. This form may be obtained by contacting the Candidate Services Coordinator. Please contact the department for instructions concerning the required information before you submit your application. Completed accommodations forms must be submitted and approved by the examination department a minimum of three months prior to the requested examination administration date.

What can I expect during the exam?

Each candidate will be given a packet containing an examination booklet, plans (if appropriate), an answer sheet, and a sheet for calculations. You will not need additional scratch paper. All of this material must be enclosed in the return envelope along with the original envelope and confirmed by the proctor.

Any comments pertinent to the examination or site should be recorded by you on a comment sheet available from the proctor, and mailed to ICC. Under no circumstances are examination materials to be taken from the room.

When do I get my exam results?

All examinees are notified by mail of their examination results from three to four weeks after the examination date. Candidate results are not available by telephone. Information is also posted on the internet at www.iccsafe.org/inspector in approximately the same time frame as the mailing of results.
